Multiple Merit-Based Scholarships

New applicants entering grades 6 through 8 may apply and interview for the following merit-based scholarships:

- St. Thomas Aquinas Scholarships - given to the students who have demonstrated academic excellence and potential
- Founders Scholarships - given to the students who exhibit strong leadership skills
- Crusader Scholarships - given to the students who exemplify Christian character and cheerful service to others

To be eligible for a merit-based award, families are not required to complete the financial aid application, but are encouraged to do so to allow for the possibility of combining need and merit-based assistance to best meet the needs of qualified families.
